

Sailing

Background

Sport England helps the Royal Yachting Association with Exchequer funding and Lottery funding, supporting their development and world class plans.

Sailing is also involved in the following Sport England initiatives.

- Awards for All (Received funding of over £1,000 000 for Awards for All projects)
- Step into Sport (Implementing strategy)
- Racial Equity (Achieved racial equity preliminary standard)

Sport England Funded Stars

- Ben Rhodes and Stephen Morrison

Ben and Andrew are both supported by a grant from the Lottery Sports Fund as part of Sport England's World Class Potential Programme. Both are relative newcomers to the 49er British fleet and in the Olympic Sailing World Championships in Cadiz they came 6th. Both are from the Exe Sailing Club, and put in a good performance to recently take 4th in the 2003 Holt RYA National Ranking Series.
