Recreation and Community Services section

Wansbeck District Council is committed to ensuring that opportunities for participation in sport and physical activity are available equally to all our residents. We are currently working towards Quest accreditation. Wansbeck is a Neighbourhood Renewal Area and is committed to use culture to improve outcomes for our residents. It is an exciting time for recreation & community services and if you think Wansbeck District Council is a place where you can make a difference then we would like to hear from you.

COMMUNITY SPORTS COACH – MULTI SPORTS (ref 90/0708)

£16,536 - £18,430.

Full Time Funded to July 2009

Join one of the fastest growing sports development teams in Northumberland. The successful candidate will be a practicing coach with a minimum of two years coaching experience and hold a variety of coaching awards including a level 2 coaching award. Experience of working with young people both in a community setting and through schools is essential as this post is about delivering activity in these locations. The post holder will be required to work flexible hours, be committed to continuous personal development through training and education, have excellent communication skills and be able to motivate a wide range of people to be active through sport.
