

Appendix 8: Acknowledgements

Strategic Leisure would like to thank the many people who willingly gave up precious time to help with the production of this report. These are reflective of the many people working in a voluntary or professional capacity in the region, whose efforts are directed towards sports development and increasing the impact sport has on issues of social exclusion.

If this report leads to a furthering of equitable provision of sporting opportunities and a greater level of social inclusion in the region, this is due, in large part, to their efforts.

In particular, we would like to thank the following:

Chris Perks, Sport England East
East Sports Board: Sports and Social Inclusion Steering Committee
